

They were through with all the evolutions of the drill, under the eye of the Colonel. A large company of citizens had gathered in the square to see them. Shelton's Band was engaged, and made the air resound with the music of "Yankee Doodle." After the review the regiment marched down Broadway to the Park, and passed in review in front of the City Hall. The regiment made a grand display, and won "golden opinions from all sorts of people" yesterday.

BODY FOUND.—The schooner Bellerive, of Newburg, A. Stewart master, after a voyage of 12 days, arrived at the gunner's wharf, a mile from West Point, found the corpse of a man floating in the water. The boat was lowered and fastened to the corpse, which was towed to Garrison's Landing, where it was given into the possession of Dr. C. H. Smith, surgeon, who stated that the person at Garrison's Landing that a few hours before was on board one of the steamboats passing full overboard and was drowned, and it is supposed that this is the body of that passenger.
